

Scottsdale business makes free video messages for troops

By: Kyle Burke
November 11, 2009

SCOTTSDALE, AZ -- This Veteran's Day many of us are voicing our thanks and appreciation for our men and women in the military.

My Studio, at Scottsdale Fashion Square, is giving those in the Valley the opportunity to send those messages to the troops overseas for free.

From now until the end of November anyone can go the My Studio kiosk, located near the food court inside the Scottsdale mall, and produce a video message for anyone in the military service.

And, it's completely free!

The message can be private for a loved one or friend, or it can be for all of the troops stationed overseas.

"Being able to connect the military personnel to the rest of the world is really how I look at it," said Anna Madrid, V.P. of Business Development for Studio1 Media and My Studio. "They need to know that we haven't forgotten them."

The staff will walk you through the procedure, help you pick out a background and then help you post your message on the Mystudio.net website.

My Studio has a second location in Hollywood, CA, so anyone in the Los Angeles area will also be able to send a message.