Frank Perrotti, Jr., Joins Board of Studio One Media, Inc.

Los Angeles, CA (May 26, 2011) -- Studio One Media, Inc. ("Studio One") (OTC.BB:SOMD-News) a leading edge entertainment & technology company, today announced that Frank Perrotti, Jr., has been elected to its Board of Directors.

Mr. Perrotti is Founder, Chairman and Chief Investment Officer of FPJ Investments ("FPJ"), a private investment firm based in New Haven, CT. The firm focuses on the investment and acquisition of undervalued assets in diversified industries in both the public and private sectors. FPJ's holdings include interests in real estate, entertainment, technology and manufacturing. FPJ's successful track record includes the acquisition of Field Brook Farms out of bankruptcy and subsequently building it into the largest private label ice cream packer in the United States. Prior to founding FPJ, Mr. Perrotti was chairman and CEO of Northeast Waste Services. The Company was built through the acquisition of over twenty-five companies and at the time of its sale was the largest privately owned diversified waste company in New England. In addition to his duties at FPJ, Frank currently serves as a Director of Prime Bank, a regionally focused business bank located in Connecticut.

Mr. Perrotti's association with Studio One is part of an extended relationship involving a substantial investment in the company. He is expected to play an important role in the advancement of Studio One's business model.

"The company is fortunate to have a man of Frank's stature and track record on the Board of Directors as we move into the next phase of Studio One's ambitious business plan," said Former Member of Congress and Studio One Chairman of the Board, Barry Goldwater Jr.
